Welcome Back!

I hope you had a restful and enjoyable summer. I am so excited to be sending a “Welcome Back” letter rather than a “Hello” like last year. With a year of experiences to draw from, I can’t help but to think this year is going to be filled with great new memories, friendships and milestones.

My sports background tells me that the most significant growth typically comes between the first and second years. The first year is spent making observations, taking notes and planning based on the findings. My enthusiasm is rooted in the most important observation I made and that is the special community we have at Geibel Catholic and the extended family that rallies around one another at every turn.

Graduation night was the turning point for me as I came to realize how much I truly love and care for our faculty, staff and students. I was and am so proud to have been a small part of their journey and look forward to the adventure ahead with the Class of 2023 as well as their little brothers and sisters in Grades 7-11.

I feel extremely blessed to have our entire faculty back this year and welcome our new administrative assistant, Caroline Hernandez, who has already proven to be Geibel Catholic’s newest Godsend.

Thank you for all of the love and support as we move into the new school year and God Bless our Geibel Catholic family. Go Gators!

Sincerely,

Mr. Fetter, Principal

Happy First Day of School!

We were honored and blessed to have Bishop Kulick, Father Julius Capongongan, and Dr. Rottler greet the faculty and staff of Geibel Catholic. Thank you so much, Bishop Kulick, for visiting our wonderful school and helping us start the school year in prayer. We are blessed to have you as the shepherd of the Diocese of Greensburg.

Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary time

This last weekend in scripture, we heard readings from the prophet Isaiah, the letter to the Hebrews, and St. Luke's account of Jesus. In Isaiah, God reminds us that God will call all nations to Zion (Jerusalem) into one loving community. The letter to the Hebrews reminds us that not only are we to draw strength from Old Testament men and women of faith, but most of all to emulate Jesus Christ. The author of Hebrews reminds us to reflect upon our suffering as discipline, always remembering that we have the affection of God, who loves us as a parent should love a child.

Lastly, when asked, "Lord, will only a few people be saved?" Jesus' answer may be somewhat shocking. Jesus' reply to the question "Will many be saved?" flips the focus back on the questioner. Jesus is asking, "Are you seeking my way of life or prestigious status?" Those who seek rank will find it and find it shallow. Those who follow Jesus down his road and through his gate will discover that they are the least made first, the lowly who will shine with God's own glory. One of the core Gospel conundrums is that one cannot save oneself. Whenever we strive to be perfect or focus on sin and forgiveness, we remain the center of our attention. The passage through Jesus' narrow gate takes us beyond self-concern into the realm of knowing we are loved and are therefore free to love any and everyone else.

What does all this mean to us in the modern world? God has called all people to a life of holiness. The Christian life is not one of sunshine, unicorns, and hallmark-style hope but rather a life of discipline that seeks to emulate Jesus Christ. What is a life of discipline? The root of discipline is disciple, which is a learner. Discipline is meant to teach us what to value and how to live according to those values. It is not like calisthenics which strengthens us by simply doing it. It works if we see more clearly how the Lord works in life, including its sufferings and losses.

FinalForms– Need to be completed by September 1st.

FinalForms is a new platform that Geibel Catholic is utilizing this school year. It will house all of the beginning of the year forms that are typically sent home during the first week of school. This will also be the area in which you are able to update any general contact, medical, and emergency contact information. As the year goes on, you will also be able to utilize this platform to indicate your child's interest in sports. We are still in the beginning stages of FinalForms full potential. Emails went out on Monday, August 8th to the email that you registered PowerSchool with. If you did not receive the email, the link below will get you to our school's specific forms. If you need assistance with anything, please give us a call at the Main Office or email Mrs. Hernandez at cnhernandez@geibelcatholic.org

Our classes are in need of a few supplies, to help them have a successful school year. If you are able to assist them, it will be greatly appreciated:

Mrs. Yankovich: newspapers

Mrs. Cline would like to extend her deepest gratitude to the families that have donated science experiment supplies to her classroom.

On Monday, September 19, our diocese will be attending the 2nd annual PA March for Life in Harrisburg to take a public stand for life from conception to natural death. To make the march as accessible as possible, we shall be sending five buses with 14 different stops around the diocese. Hopefully this will make it available for anyone who wants to attend.

This year, the event takes on further meaning because of the Dobbs v. Jackson Supreme Court case that puts the issue of abortion back into the hearts and minds of voters and elected officials. This makes our state march all the more relevant and necessary. I ask that you promote this march in your bulletins and by other means where able. For more details, see our diocesan pro-life webpage. <https://www.dioceseofgreensburg.org/ministries/Pages/Pro-Life-Ministry-and-Advocacy.aspx>

You are also welcome to join us yourselves for the march. Last year we had a marvelous event that included a rally, a march around the Capitol building, and an opportunity to meet with many of our local representatives at a reception in the Capitol. This year's trip will also include participation in Mass at St. Patrick Cathedral, just two blocks away from the Capitol. Please contact Chrissy at 724-552-2581 or ccerilli@dioceseofgreensburg.org to reserve a seat on one of our buses.
