Gator of the Week

The Gator of the Week honor is a separate recognition from our Gators of the Month. The Gator of the Week is a standalone award that is presented to a student who, in the eyes of the staff and/or administration, has represented Geibel Catholic in a positive way, likely in some public way. No criteria will be listed as it is an organically-identified student (or potentially a teacher or alum) who conducts themselves like an exemplary Gator naturally or regularly.

Responsibilities/Obligations/Privileges

The GOW will be in possession of the title belt for approximately one week. As the next honoree is identified, a person may have the belt for one day more or less depending upon the situation.

The GOW may bring the title belt home in the carrying bag but must be sure to bring it back by the specified date. If the GOW is not comfortable taking the belt home, they may keep it in the main office or with administrators upon their request.

It is the hope of the school that the GOW takes the opportunity for (tasteful and appropriate) photos that they share with administrators for posting on social media.

The GOW may request time during their school day to take pictures around the school with the belt as part of their privilege.

Should the GOW want to take pictures in the cafeteria during lunch, they would ask an on-duty teacher or administrator to take pictures of them during that time.
