A note from the Gospel:

Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me. Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

-Matthew 5: 11-12

We are excited to announce that our annual Bill of Rights Essay Contest is now accepting submissions from middle and high school students (grades 6-12). In celebration of America's 250th anniversary and the 235th anniversary of the Bill of Rights, students are invited to reflect on what the Bill of Rights means today.

Essay contestants should respond to the prompt in 1,500 words or less (about three single-spaced pages). Bibliographies will not count toward the word limit. Only full-time students in Christian schools or homeschools are eligible. Winners and selected runners-up will receive awards of up to $300.

All essays must be submitted by November 23, 2026.
